IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY
APPELLATE SIDE
Criminal Application No.823 of 2007
In
Criminal Appeal No.671 of 2007

Shivaji Dhanaji Unhale — Applicant
Vs.
The State of Maharashtra — Respondent

Mr.Sudatta Patil for applicant.
Mr.Y.S.Shinde, APP for State.

CORAM: B.H.MARLAPALLE, J.

August 2, 2007.

P.C.

. Heard Mr.Patil, the learned Counsel for the applicant. The learned APP appears for the State. Perused the depositions of the prosecutrix which indicate that the relationship between her and the applicant continued for a period of about three years and the applicant, as per her statement, had promised to marry her but subsequently she came to know that the applicant was already a married person with two children and staying with his family in his village. The prosecutrix was married on 16th December 1990 and she has a daughter from the said wedlock. Her husband died in the accident on 13th August 1996. For sometime she stayed with her parents at Kolhapur and after she came in contact with the applicant, she moved to an independent house in Kolhapur. The obtaining circumstances as explained by the prosecutrix in her depositions before the trial Court do make out a case to release the applicant on bail forthwith.

. Hence the application is hereby allowed and the applicant is directed to be released on bail, if not required in any other case, on furnishing a PR bond in the sum of Rs.10,000/- with two solvent sureties in the like amount. He shall report to the nearest police station once in a month during the pendency of the appeal.
